

55th Elva Reunion

September 10-12, 2010 Road America / Elkhart Lake

Here are the many reasons the 55th Elva Reunion is a MUST ATTEND:

1. It only happens every 5 years.
2. Racers from both coasts will be attending (a great way to compare your skills and car prep with others you may have never raced against) All Elva race entrants will enjoy 3 individual races Sunday (bring plenty of gas!!)
3. Saturday night Banquet at the Osthoff Resort which borders the original road course and overlooks Elkhart Lake will feature John Fitch (one of America's best early International Sports Car Drivers) and Burdette Martin who's early Elva Racing and Dealership along with his Sports Car executive positions with FIA and SCCA are always entertaining. Gathering on the Green Concours prior to Banquet with live Swing time Band Music.
4. Friday Night Elva Car show for Race and Street Cars will be the largest gathering of Elvas in the US be part of the photo shoot!!
5. The Historic Elkhart Lake / Road America will be celebrating its 60th birthday with feature cars that raced those early days along with their historic Elkhart Lake Road Course Re-enactment.
6. We have focused on both race cars and street cars and are offering the one lap touring before the all Elva Race.
7. A LeMans start for prewar class races for the first time in a long time!!
8. First Place Awards presented per Elva class

Additional details and information are available along with pre-registration at the Elva Website: www.elva.com
